THE CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL

The Famous McGuffey Elms

June Brings Roses, Caps and Gowns, Sheep-Skins - and Commencement.

Interesting Program Planned for Campus Guests

Commencement time, happiest and most care-free season of the year for returning alumni and prospective graduates alike, will soon come again to the campus of Ohio University. The 1928 season, the dates of which are June 9, 10, 11, and 12, will not only make an occasion for happy reunions and gala times but will mark the close of the finest and most prosperous of all the years in the long history of the pioneer college in the great Northwest.

In order that the year's work shall be fittingly climaxed, all of the departments of the university are co-operating to make the approaching June period an outstanding and successful one. Entertainment of a varied and satisfying nature will be provided for all who return for the commencement events—and from present indications the number of returning grads will be large. As has been stated elsewhere, no attempt is to be made this year to adhere to the Dix schedule of class reunions. Instead, an effort will be made to bring back an even larger number of alumni than usual, regardless of the classes to which they may belong.

Reference to the general program, which appears upon the inside back cover page, will disclose that an extra day, June 9, has been added to the schedule upon which will occur one of the most interesting features of the entire program, a McGuffey Pageant, staged by the Athens branch of American Association of University Women. The themes of the pageant will be taken from the life and activities of William H. McGuffey.

A shift this year, made for the convenience of commencement guests, is that of the time of the Alumni Luncheon from Tuesday to Monday noon. The change in time will make it possible for many who desire to do so to get away from town immediately after the graduation exercises. The luncheon will be held in Lindley Hall and the tickets will sell, as usual, at $1.00 per plate.

In addition to other interesting features—the golf tournament, inspection of the Alumni Memorial Auditorium, president's reception, commencement picnic, and campus illumination and serenade—a repeat performance of "Hello Happiness," men's musical comedy, will be staged on Monday night, June 11, instead of the usual college play. "Hello Happiness" is a complete and successful innovation in the musical and dramatic efforts of the campus and is sure to please commencement visitors. The show will be held in the Majestic Theatre, tickets selling at seventy-five cents each. Reservations may be made through the Alumni Office in advance. With the exception of the luncheon and the show, for which charges are made sufficient only to defray expenses, all events on the program are free to the university's guests.

The Commencement address will be delivered Tuesday, June 12, by the Hon. John Stewart Bryan, of Richmond, Va. Mr. Bryan is a newspaper editor of note and is president of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. He has been the recipient of high degrees from leading universities and is known as one of the South's most gifted speakers.

The picture appearing with this article is that of the program which was held at the inauguration, September 18, 1839, of William H. McGuffey, as the fourth president of Ohio University. Thomas Ewing, first graduate, was one of the speakers of the occasion.

Treasurer Reports $1000 In Super Fund

Completion Expected By June

A letter, dated April 2, from Miss Anna Pearl MacVay, '92, secretary-treasurer of the Super Prize Fund Committee gives evidence of the fine progress that is being made in the matter of establishing a scholarship fund in honor of Dr. Charles W. Super, a former professor and president of Ohio University.

Miss MacVay's colleagues on the committee are: Carr V. Van Anda, chairman, Albert Leonard, Clyde F. Beery, David H. Thomas, Mrs. Clyde Brown (Caroline Schwefel), and Hiram Roy Wilson.

The letter follows:
Mr. Clark E. Williams,
Ohio University,
Athens, Ohio.

Dear Alumni Secretary:

It is a pleasure to report to my fellow alumni that I deposited this morning $1000 in the savings bank to the credit of the Super Prize Fund, and that I received this afternoon a contribution of $25 which starts the second thousand, the goal which the committee hopes will be reached by June 1. So far there have been forty-one individual or joint contributions, ranging in amounts from five to two hundred dollars apiece, the average being twenty-five dollars.

I wish there were space in this letter to report some of the many words appreciative of Dr. Super which have accompanied cheques received from grateful students or admiring friends and from one alumnus who regretted exceedingly that he could not contribute. Perhaps this may be possible when I make my final report. The cordial response which I have got from old college mates to whom I sent an appeal for the Fund is heartwarming. As replies have come thus far from less than twenty percent of the persons whom I addressed, I am expecting to receive answers from many more, whose names I hope to add to my next report.

The committee now makes grateful acknowledgement to the following subscribers:

A. A. Atkinson, Nina Schwefel Ballard (Mrs. Ellis Ames), Clyde F. Beery, Charles F. Blake, Clyde and Caroline Schwefel Brown, Mabel K. Brown, F. W. Bush, Arthur Howe and Lucile Evans Carpenter, Charles M. Copeland, T. W. Craig, H. M. Eagleson, L. M. and Lizzie McVay Gillilan, Strickland Gillilan, Francis B. Henry, John L. Henry, C. B. Humphrey, C. L. Jones, Stella I. Koons, W. B. Lawrence, Albert Leonard, Nancy E. Linton, U. M. and Amy Herrold McCaughey, Samuel L. McCune, Anna Pearl McVay, Bertha W. McVay, H. R. McVay, Roscoe J. Mauck, Clarence W. Murphy, C. G. O'Bleness, Edith Woodruff Sayre (Mrs. Edwin D.), Sella F. Schwefel (Mrs. Ernest), Carl D. Sheppard, John A. Shott, C. E. and Gladys McVay Skinner, B. O. Skinner, J. E. and Fanny Rose Snow, F. H. Super, Josephus T. Ullom, Carr V. Van Anda, Hiram R. and Florence Craig Wilson, L. G. and Lenore Michael Worstell.

Sincerely yours,

Anna Pearl MacVay
Sec'y-Treasurer.

P. S. Every dollar contributed goes 100% to the Fund, as all expenses of correspondence, etc., are met through a special gift.

Class of '23 to Meet On Fifth Anniversary

Recent activity in the Class of 1923 camp has been reported to the Alumni Office as taking the form of a meeting of the Reunion Committee to make plans for a big class round-up in June upon the occasion of the fifth anniversary of their graduation.

The committee, which is composed of a group of local alumni, met for luncheon at the Varsity Inn, April 11, and decided to make the 1928 reunion the biggest and best yet. The Class of 1923 has held a reunion each of the four years since leaving the campus. Letters announcing the plans for 1928 will soon be mailed to all class members.

The committee: Earl Beckley, chr., Sid Beckert, Irene Devlin, Opal Cooley Williams, William Longstreet, and Ethel Borton. Miss Irene Devlin is permanent secretary of the class and Prof. C. N. Mackinnon, class advisor.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

CLASS REUNION SCHEDULE TO BE ABANDONED Adherence to a fixed and rotating schedule of class reunions, with a view to bringing together chronologically related classes, has been attempted for the past four commencement seasons with little or none of the success that had been hoped for. Dismal as the fact may be, it must be admitted that class reunions, with a few exceptions, notably in the cases of the Class of 1923 and some of the older and smaller classes, have been disappointing failures. Lack of class spirit and consciousness dating back to undergraduate days is believed to be largely responsible for the apathy in connection with class affairs. Whatever the cause, the effect is obvious. As a result, therefore, it has been decided to abandon the Dix Reunion schedule this year and to devote all energies to the general entertainment of all alumni who return to the campus, regardless of class affiliations. A special effort will be made, however, in behalf of the fifty-year class and of any others whose class representatives seek the cooperation of the Alumni Office.

The general attendance of alumni in the recent past has been very gratifying and it is anticipated that the June, 1928, commencement crowd will be the largest in the history of the school. In view of the general interest in the commencement program it is regretted that the members of designated reunion classes cannot make the June pilgrimage in sufficient numbers each year to insure the success of special class programs.

NEW DIRECTORY ON ITS WAY After weeks of monotonous and strenuous labor the Editor and his assistant have completed the compiling and preparation of copy for the new Alumni Directory and have turned their information over to the printer who is now busily engaged in setting it in type form.

The directory will appear as the March number of The Ohio Alumnus, in accordance with original plans, although it will not get into the mails before the early part of May. A lack of cooperation on the part of many alumni in the early return of address verification cards has served to delay the editorial work to a great extent.

THE MCGUFFEY INTEREST AND OHIO UNIVERSITY Everybody these days, it seems, is striving to honor the name of William H. McGuffey and to renew an interest in the McGuffey Readers which were the instruments that brought him fame. Miami and Cincinnati universities are, at the present time, active in compiling biographical data concerning this interesting educator, while Henry Ford and the various and newly-formed McGuffey societies about the country are doing much to focus on him the attention of a generation which has had but little knowledge of the man or of his famous readers.

Ohio University men and women will doubtless take pride in relating the fact to young students in the classroom or to friends, in social conversation, that William H. McGuffey was at one time a president of their Alma Mater, serving from 1839 to 1843. And of course it is known to all that the McGuffey Elms—one of the most beautiful and imposing rows of shade trees in the country—were planted by, and later named for, Ohio University's fourth president.

PAY UP AND COME BACK Here and there throughout the country are Ohio University graduates and former students who have not yet completed the payments on their pledges to the Alumni Memorial Auditorium Fund. Unless these people regard their obligations with an unnatural indifference it is possible that the thoughts of their unpaid pledges will act as deterrents to a return to the campus at commencement time and on other special occasions. Why not pay up those unredeemed pledges and come back to Ohio University with a greater sense of pride and ownership than has ever been possible before?

-:- ON THE CAMPUS -:-

February Graduations

Thirty-nine Ohio University students were awarded degrees and diplomas at the end of the first semester, in February, upon the completion of their college courses.

Seven Bachelor of Arts, one A. B. in Commerce, and fourteen Bachelor of Science in Education degrees were granted. The diplomas were awarded as follows: One Commerce, three Kindergarten-Primary, ten County Education, one Industrial Education, and two Art Supervisor.

Applications for the four-year degrees to be awarded in June number 175 and for the two-year diplomas, 85.

Brown Contest Revived

The Brown Oratorical Contest, discontinued during the war years because of a lack of interest, and never since renewed, is to be held again this year and will be sponsored by the local chapter of Phi Delta Gamma, honorary forensic fraternity.

The contest is named in honor of Mr. J. D. Brown, Athens banker, who generously contributes the prize money. Three cash prizes of $50, $30, and $20, will be awarded this year. The only requirements are that the orations must be original and not over ten minutes in length.

The date of the contest has been announced as May 31. Nine contestants have registered thus far.

Italian Count Visits Campus

Count Carlo di Sforza, widely-known Italian statesman and diplomat, was the recent guest of the Social Science Club of Ohio University. The Count is a man of distinguished bearing, one of Europe's finest scholars, and an eloquent speaker. His principal address was delivered to the faculty and student body on "The Future of Democracy in Europe." He has been lecturing extensively in this country and is at present studying America and her problems of democratic government.

Fine Progress on Auditorium

The outside walls and practically all other brickwork and masonry on the new Alumni Memorial Auditorium were completed early in April. Work on the slate and copper roof is nearing completion while the metal and iron work, including fire escapes and stairways, will likely be completed by the end of the month.

Experts in straight and ornamental plaster work are rapidly transforming the rough interior of the building into the semblance of the finished auditorium. Interior decorators and finishers will, in all probability, not be called onto the job much before the first of June. In the meantime the exterior walls of the building will be cleaned down, landscaping and grading started, and as much work as possible done to enable June Commencement visitors to gain a fair impression of the new structure.

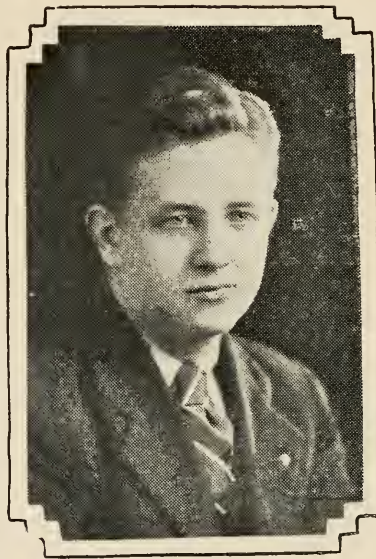

To the great disappointment of the 1928 seniors the Auditorium will not be available for this year's commencement exercises. The contract calls for completion of the building by September 1, 1928. There will be little difficulty in holding to that schedule.

Plans are already being evolved for a dedicatory program next fall which will fittingly commemorate the completion of the largest task ever undertaken by the alumni of Ohio University in behalf of their Alma Mater. It is probable that the date selected will fall on the week-end of the annual Homecoming Day which, this year, will be observed on October 20.

Mother's Day Big Success

The three days of the week-end of March 23-25, were busy ones at Ohio University with over 500 mothers being hurried from one entertainment to another, being shown the campus and town and meeting everybody's friends.

Tom Slater

The program for the celebration of the third annual Mother's Day could scarcely have been more complete or more varied than was the one carried out here. Every moment was scheduled for an event of some sort to honor the visitors, and every event was attended by crowds of eager mothers and daughters, or mothers and sons.

Campus Music and Dramatics

The Revelers, campus dramatic organization, are putting the finishing touches on Sutton Vane's three-act comedy, "Outward Bound," a play which, as professionally staged, has received unusually flattering reviews from the New York critics.

The leads in the play are taken by Tom Slater, sophomore, Parkersburg, W. Va., and Helen Rupp, freshman, Martins Ferry, O.

"Hello Happiness," produced entirely and staged by "The Comedians," Ohio University men's musical comedy organization, met with an enthusiastic reception on the two nights, March 6 and 7, when it was played in Athens and on the "road trip" to Zanesville, O. Plans are already being made for an even bigger and better production next year. The words and music for "Hello Happiness" were written on the campus and all of the roles, including the choruses, were taken by men.

Ohio University's far-traveling Varsity Male Quartet is, at this moment, enjoying a visit in Los Angeles, Calif., after having made a ten-stop concert tour under the auspices and as guests of the Atchison, Topeka & Sante Fe railroad. Concerts were given at the Sante Fe Clubhouses at the following points: Chilli-cothe, Ill.; Marceline, Mo.; Shopton, Iowa; Newton, Kans.; Guthrie and Waynoka, Okla.; Canadian, Amarillo, and Slaton, Texas; Gallup, N. Mex.; and Los Angeles, Calif. In addition to the stops on the railroad itinerary, concerts were given at Decatur, and Chicago, Ill., the program being broadcast by Station WLS from the latter point.

Student Pastorate Ends

The interdenominational Student Pastorate at Ohio University was discontinued on February 28, 1928, by a vote of the board representing the four co-operating churches — the Methodist, Presbyterian, Christian, and Baptist.

The pastorate was established eight years ago and has been served successively by Rev. A. C. Hacke, Rev. Charles M. Bond, and Rev. Walter W. Ludwig, the incumbent at the time of discontinuance.

The reasons for abandonment of the project are given as a desire on the part of the national boards of some of the larger churches to place individual secretaries in the local churches to care for the student work, and due to an overlapping of certain phases of the student pastor's work with that of other university organizations. It is likely that the School of Religion, which in the past has been directed by the student pastor, will also be discontinued.

Helen Rupp

Prexy Visits West

Meetings of the fifty-seventh annual conference of the Ohio College Association held in Columbus, April 5 and 6, were presided over by President Elmer Burritt Bryan, of Ohio University.

Immediately following the Columbus conference, Dr. Bryan left for Pullman, Wash., where, on April 12, 13, and 14, he delivered six addresses as principal speaker at the meetings of the State Educational Council.

Growth in Commerce School

The School of Commerce this semester has a total enrollment of 376 students, among whom are representatives from 58 Ohio counties. Of this number, 246 are registered for the A. B. in Commerce course and 39 for the B. S. S. course.

The seniors in the school of commerce number 37, 34 taking an A. B. course, and three a B. S. S. course. The ratio of men to women is about three to one.

Miss Ohio To Be Named

Twenty co-eds will vie for the honor of being named Miss Ohio at the Junior Prom, April 27 —and incidentally for the $150 worth of prizes which have been donated by Athens merchants.

Founders' Day Meetings and Radio Program Meet Hearty Approval of Ohio Grads

Broadcast Heard Distinctly Over Wide Area

Ohio University's first Founder's Day radio program was broadcast, February 18, at eight o'clock, from Station W. S. A. I., Cincinnati, Ohio, and on the same evening an "All-Ohio Night" was observed by several of the alumni chapters and other unorganized groups of Ohioans who were gathered together in social reunions in recognition of the occasion, as well as by hundreds of individuals and their friends who tuned in at their homes.

If the number of favorable reports received from widely scattered sections of the country are an indication of general success, then all who participated in the broadcast and the reunions may feel well satisfied with their efforts to spread the name and fame of Ohio University throughout the land.

Letters and telegrams telling of a perfect reception of the program have come to the Alumni Office from points as far distant as the states of New York, Florida, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Minnesota.

The two addresses of the radio program were given by Dr. Hiram Roy Wilson, '96, president of the Ohio University Alumni Association, and Dr. Elmer Burritt Bryan, president of Ohio University. The musical features were provided by the Faculty String Quartet and the Varsity Male Quartet.

The cities in which more or less formal alumni meetings were held on this date were: Alliance, Chillicothe, Cincinnati, Columbus, Crooksville, Gallipolis, Ironton, Jackson, Lancaster, Lima, McArthur, Marietta, Medina, Mt. Vernon, Newark, Portsmouth, Steubenville, Toledo, Uhrichsville, and Washington Court House, Ohio; Charleston, Huntington, Parkersburg, and Wheeling, W. Va.; and Pittsburgh, Pa. New alumni organizations were effected at Alliance, Chillicothe, Gallipolis, Ohio, and Parkersburg, W. Va.

The officers heading up the new chapters and those elected by the older groups at their Founders' Day meetings are: Alliance—Prof. George F. Lamb, '02, president; and Harry H. Lapp, '25, secretary. Chillicothe—Manning G. Coultrap, '06, president; and Miss Pearl W. Mace, '21, 2-yr., secretary-treasurer. Cincinnati—Gilbert J. Shaver, '23, president, and Miss Callie K. Walls, '12, secretary (re-elected). Columbus—Floyd Stanley Crooks, '06, president; I. Jay Read, '22, treasurer; and Miss Lela Ewers, '16, secretary. Gallipolis—Supt. K. R. Vermillion, '24, president; and Miss Anna Simmerman, '17, secretary. Lancaster (Thomas Ewing)—Floyd Zwickel, '18-ex, president; Dorothy Holder, '24, 2-yr., vice-president; Vanetta Bruns, '27-ex, secretary; and Harold V. Tipton, '24, treasurer. Marietta—Fred B. Goddard, '15, president; and Betty Greene, '23, secretary. Steubenville — Supt. Merrill L. Dennis, '19, president; Dorothy Daugherty, '18, 2-yr., vice-president; Marian Murphey, '13, 2-yr., secretary; and Helen Erwin, '23, 2-yr., treasurer. Huntington, W. Va.—Everett M. Starr, '20, president (re-elected); and Lu Verne Kelley, '16, secretary-treasurer. Parkersburg, W. Va.—Robert S. Soule, '23, president; J. S. McKown, '76, vice-president; and Miss Hanah M. Randall, '23, 2-yr., secretary-treasurer. Wheeling, W. Va. (Ohio Valley)—Miss Bess M. Cole, '16, president; and Miss Nelle Bauer, '26, secretary. Pittsburgh, Pa.—Mrs. Homer S. Hopkins, '15, president; and L. E. Kilbury, '11, 2-yr., secretary-treasurer.

Not all of the spring alumni meetings were held on February 18, however. The Philadelphia chapter convened for its annual meeting, on February 22, with Dean T. C. McCracken, of Ohio University, as a guest and speaker. Advantage was taken of Dean McCracken's presence in the city on his way to attend the N. E. A. meetings at Boston. Mrs. Mabel Howell Livingston, '11, and Mr. A. B. Hughes, '10, 2-yr., were re-elected officers of the Philadelphia group.

The New Yorkers and their neighbors across in Jersey were called together on March 10 for a dinner in the Fraternities Club Building. A group of fifty-seven persons was present. The officers for next year are: Dr. Albert Leonard, '88, president; Mostyn Jones, '13, vice-president; and Mrs. Edith Humphrey Townsend, '19-ex, secretary-treasurer.

Baseball Season Opens With A Victory & Other Sports Have Ambitious Schedules

Baseball, at the present time, is the item on the Ohio University spring sports menu that is proving most attractive to the athletes and "fans" on the Green and White campus. Other sports—track, tennis, and the spring intramurals—are coming in for their share of patronage but not to the extent of that accorded the great American pastime.

Although adverse weather conditions have hampered the pre-season training and the boys have thus far participated in but one game—which was won from Rio Grande, 13 to 6—Coach Peden seems pleased with the calibre of the men who are candidates for places on the varsity nine and feels that a good record will be hung up at the end of the season.

Of the candidates for the hurling positions, "Lefty" Barfoot and "Pete" McKinley are outstanding. They were the mainstays of last year's force. Engh, Lutz, Hoyt and Wakely are other boxmen of less experience although they show promise.

The infield is well supplied with veterans, Bayless, captain of the 1928 squad, who can fill in at most any of the positions; Williams, a clever infielder; Murray, a third-sacker of some experience; Robeson, a catcher or an infielder; and McKinley, who holds down the initial sack when not doing box duty, are veterans and the most probable candidates. Of the sophomores, Weiss, Brammer, Grant and Rollins have the best chances of breaking into the line-up.

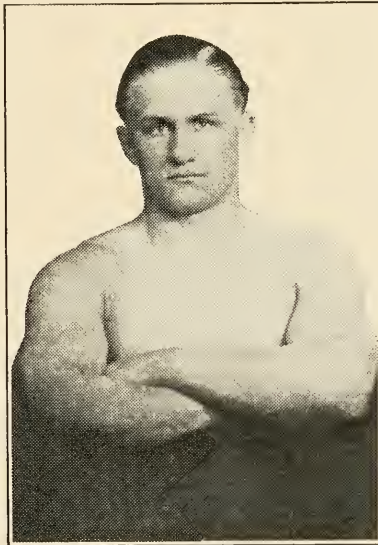

Robeson, Rhodes, or Ludwig are ready for service behind the plate, and Agostinelli, veteran, Mason, and Zahl are leading contenders for the other positions.

The 1928 baseball schedule: April 14, Rio

Grande, home; April 17, Muskingum, home; April 20, Miami, away; April 21, Cincinnati, away; April 25, Ohio Wesleyan, home; April 28, Cincinnati, home; May 1, Wittenberg, away; May 5, Denison, home; May 8, Marietta, home; May 16, Miami, home; May 18, Ohio Wesleyan, away; May 22, Denison, away; May 24, Wittenberg, home.

By virtue of impressive mat records gained in competition against the best of the Buckeye and Big Ten matmen, Sereno Shafer, middleweight, and Joe Begala, light heavyweight, were chosen to participate April 6 and 7, in the Olympic wrestling try-outs held in Columbus, Ohio. Further recognition came to Ohio University when Coach Thor Olson was selected to act as sole official at the try-outs. Thor was at one time the middleweight champion of the United States. Shafer and Begala made good showings in the elimination contests although the former was outpointed by Swan, Indiana U., and the latter by Helgerson, Ohio State.

Baldwin-Wallace Man Publishes Book

Is Cleveland Radio Lecturer

Dr. Oscar L. Dustheimer, for the past thirteen years professor of Mathematics and Astronomy at Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, O., has just announced the publication of a Laboratory Manual for Observational Astronomy upon which he has been working for more than twelve years. The copy for a textbook on Trigonometry will be ready for the printer during the present year.

Dr. Dustheimer received the B. S. degree from Ohio University in 1913, the A. M. (in Mathematics) from Clark University in 1914, the M. S. (in Astronomy) from the University of Michigan in 1915, and the Ph. D. in Astronomy from Michigan in 1927.

Dr. Dustheimer is a member of the Mathematical Association of America, the American Astronomical Society of the Pacific, the Cleveland Astronomical Society, the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, the Sigma Xi honorary scientific fraternity, the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity, and other organizations. He is a member of the Detroit observatory and staff and of the summer school faculty of the University of Michigan. He has given several series of astronomical lectures from Cleveland radio stations.

The Dustheimer home in Berea is presided over by an Ohio University woman who, at the time of her marriage, was Miss Edna B. Cline, '13.

A completely equipped charity ward in the Sheltering Arms Hospital, Athens, and the income from a $30,000 fund for its support, was the gift of Mrs. T. R. Biddle (Grace Poston), '95, to the city of Athens, announced on last Christmas day.

Founders' Day Meetings

Ohioans in the Los Angeles region of California were given an opportunity to "talk over old times" on April 6, when the Los Angeles chapter met at the Alexandria Hotel. No report has as yet been received of this meeting.

The alumni of Licking county, Ohio, are making elaborate plans for a reunion and the effecting of a permanent organization, at Newark, on April 20. Chicagoans have set April 28 as a rallying date while the Mahoning Valley chapter is expecting a record attendance at a date in the near future not yet determined.

It is a matter of regret to the Editor that because of a lack of space complete reports cannot be given of the various group meetings that have been mentioned and public acknowledgment made of the loyal and enthusiastic service rendered by those who successfully planned and staged the reunion events.

Renew Your Acquaintance With

Prof. A. A. Atkinson

It has been a custom in the past year or so to include in each number of The Ohio Alumnus a brief sketch of the academic preparation and scholastic and professional attainment of a new member of the faculty. It has frequently been suggested to the Editor by the readers of the magazine that a review of the activities and accomplishments of some of the older members of the faculty would prove equally interesting. The editor agrees and henceforth it will be turn about — first a new and then an old.

The following sketch concerns itself with the senior member, in point of service, of the Ohio University faculty — Albert A. Atkinson, professor of Physics and Electrical Engineering.

Prof. A. A. Atkinson

Professor Atkinson was born, March 7, 1867, upon a farm seven miles southwest of Nelsonville, O. He attended the country schools and the preparatory department of Ohio University. Continuing in the University he received the B. S. degree in 1891 and the M. S. degree in 1895.

Prior to joining the University faculty Prof. Atkinson gained teaching experience in rural and township schools. In 1892-93 he studied at the University of Michigan. The following year, 1893, he became affiliated with the Ohio University teaching staff and has continued in his relationship to the present time.

Professor Atkinson's name is to be found in "Who's Who," where it is recorded that he is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Physical Society, American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, Ohio Academy of Science, and Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

He is the author of Electrical and Magnetic Calculations, A Manual of Laboratory Physics, and The Physics of Common Things (in preparation).
